General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

What is a Privacy Notice?

I will continue to treat your personal data as usual. This is now called GDPR and is detailed below. Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

Who I Am?

I am Dr Rachel Harrison, MBCHb, CST D. I practice at 36 Brighton Place, Edinburgh, EH15 1 LT, and my phone number is 0131 669 8966

What Personal Data do I hold and Why?

I hold the information you give me on the General Health Questionnaire, and keep a record of your treatments so as to be able to contact you, arrange appointments and treat you effectively.

Sharing Your Personal Data

I will only share your personal data with your explicit consent if we agreed, for example, that I would write to your GP for some reason.

Retaining Your Personal Data

I will retain your data for a period of 8 years after your last treatment or for children, until they reach the age of 25.

Your Rights

- You may request a copy of your data at any time.
- If you believe any of the personal data I hold on you is inaccurate or incomplete, please let me know directly and any necessary corrections will be made without undue delay.
- If you wish me to erase your data, or stop storing it, please let me know.

Data Breaches

Should your personal data held by me be lost, stolen or otherwise breached, where this constitutes a high risk to your rights and freedoms, I will contact you without delay. I will give you the contact details of the Data Protection Officer who is dealing with the breach, explain to you the nature of the breach and the steps I am taking to deal with it.

Should You Wish to Complain

Please let me know if there is any aspect of your care you are unhappy with. You can also contact Upledger UK by emailing mail@upledger.co.uk, if you wish to make a complaint.
